

WELCOME TO THE OLD SAVOY

The Old Savoy is a beautiful art deco building in the heart of Northampton.

The Old Savoy is a truly historic building, the venue was restored in 2007; the venue has an astounding past with performances over the years by The Rolling Stones and The Beatles.

Supervised by English Heritage, the multi-million pound restoration combined the original, stunning art deco styling with state-of-the-art technology. The 900 seat auditorium provides an excellent viewing experience.

In 2009, local family production company, Stage Right Productions, took on the management of this fabulous venue, striving to provide an affordable theatre experience to enjoy with friends and family.

The theatre continues towards the aim to provide the town with a much-needed family friendly venue that all ages can enjoy.

We are proud to host a huge variety of live performances, entertainment, comedy and music acts - ensuring there is something to suit all ages, cultures and tastes!
